Dr. Md. Ezazul Islam
Director General
Bangladesh Institute of Bank Management (BIBM)

Dr. Md. Ezazul Islam is the Director General of the Bangladesh Institute of Bank Management (BIBM). He is a distinguished economist, central banker, researcher, and policy expert with more than three decades of experience in monetary policy, macroeconomic management, financial sector development, and economic research.

Prior to joining BIBM in January 2026, Dr. Islam served in various senior positions at Bangladesh Bank, culminating in his role as Executive Director (Research) of the Monetary Policy Department. During his tenure, he played a leading role in the formulation and implementation of monetary and exchange-rate policies, contributed to the modernization of Bangladesh's monetary policy framework, and served as a member of key policy and market-operation committees. He was also a principal contributor to Bangladesh Bank's Monetary Policy Statements, policy reviews, and macroeconomic forecasting initiatives.

Dr. Islam earned his PhD in Economics from Jahangirnagar University, where his doctoral research focused on the monetary transmission mechanism and monetary policy in Bangladesh. He has authored numerous research articles, policy notes, and working papers on monetary economics, financial stability, financial inclusion, inflation dynamics, debt sustainability, capital markets, and banking-sector development. His research has been published in reputed national and international journals.

At BIBM, Dr. Islam provides strategic leadership to the Institute's training, research, consultancy, and academic activities, with a commitment to strengthening human capital and advancing excellence in Bangladesh's banking and financial sector. In recognition of his outstanding contributions to economic policy research and analysis, he received the Bangladesh Bank Employees' Recognition Award (Gold Medal) in 2013.
