Iftakher Mahmud Ziad is a finance academic and researcher with experience in teaching, research, and financial market analysis. He holds both Bachelor of Business Administration (BBA) and Master of Business Administration (MBA) degrees in Finance from the University of Dhaka. He has academic and professional experience in the areas of Finance, with a particular interest in financial markets and corporate financial decision-making. His areas of expertise include Corporate Finance, Investment Analysis, Asset Pricing, Portfolio Management and Market Efficiency. He has also gained practical experience in the capital market through investment research, equity valuation, portfolio analysis, and industry evaluation. His academic interests focus on applying financial theories and empirical methods to understand corporate and capital market issues.